Good evening and welcome to the Players, Directors and Staff of Colchester United F.C.
I must say I am glad to see the end of the Christmas period and things getting back to normal. We are now able to prepare for games in good time and get players properly rested before it's time to play again. Weather also effected the Christmas programme, with games being called off some teams had 5 days to prepare whilst others only had 2. In saying that I am reasonably happy at getting 6 points out of 9 although I felt we deserved a draw at Torquay.
We now need to look at what we have to achieve in the second half of the season to gain promotion.
In 22 games we have only managed to get 32 points. We must set a target of 70 to be sure of at least a place in the play-offs, so we are still looking for 38 points from only 20 games. This is a monumental task when you consider we only got 29 points in the second half of last season. We must however look on the bright side and say we did get 38 points in the first half of last season.

WE KNOW WHAT WE HAVE TO DO.
YOU KNOW WHAT WE HAVE TO DO.
PLEASE HELP US TO ACHIEVE IT.

GARY.

FROM THE SECRETARY

With Audrey Shaw

We all look forward to the New Year and hope that at last we can give you marvellous supporters some of the success which you deserve. 1994 certainly proved to be an eventful year which I don't think could have been matched by many Clubs in the Third Division. Looking ahead the game at Carlisle next Saturday this is an "all ticket" fixture and any tickets remaining will be put on general sale immediately after this evenings game.

On Saturday February 18th we entertain Carlisle United here at Deepdale. This game will be an "all ticket" game. To ensure that regular North End supporters can obtain tickets for this important fixture vouchers will be distributed at the turnstiles at our home fixture against Mansfield Town on Saturday 21st January as will information regarding the purchasing of tickets in exchange for the voucher. We will hope that this will ensure Carlisle supporters cannot come down and purchase tickets with the North End supporters and causing any problems for fans on the day also eliminating a lock-out situation arising this causing inconvenience to supporters. After consultation with the Police and authorities it has been agreed that the 'Kop' (an all standing area) will be given over to Carlisle supporters for this fixture. The decision has been made with the safety and the best interest of North End supporters in mind. We hope that this will prevent any congestion and minimise the possibility of any problems arising between the two sets of fans.

Obviously the season ticket holders will be inconvenienced on this occasion but every effort will be made to accommodate you elsewhere in the ground.

AUDREY SHAW
Secretary

NEW SIGNINGS

22 Year old Graham Lancashire was signed from First Division Burnley on the 23rd December 1994. The fee of £55,000 is regarded by many as a bargain.

Graham appeared for Chester City last season scoring 7 goals in 12 games whilst on loan...two against North End.

BUILDING FOR

1995 will be a significant year for Preston North End with the beginning of the dramatic conversion of Deepdale into high profile, multi-purpose Sports and Leisure complex.

The re-development of the stadium is a major component of the long term strategy for the Club put together by Baxi, the Bamber Bridge based company who purchased a controlling interest in North End last September.

Bryan Gray, who became Chairman following the Baxi takeover, is delighted with the positive response all elements from the local community and believes that the club is entering a new era in its history. "The opportunity to lead the development of North End into the next century is a very exciting one" he said. "This project will require substantial investment over a number of years and needs the backing of a company like Baxi if it is to succeed. Our job now is to recreate the glory of the past so that once more everyone will be proud of Preston North End - the team and the stadium."

The concept of a new stadium at Deepdale was the brainchild of Ben Casey, a lifelong supporter who through his company "The Chase," had worked closely with Baxi on various design assignments including the creation of a new corporate identity, the Annual Report & Accounts and more recently, Baxi Heating literature.

Ben had been campaigning to redevelop the stadium for some time and when Mike McLauchlan, a fellow Director of The Chase, met Bryan Gray and Laurence King last june, their discussions turned into consideration of Ben's ideas for a revitalised Deepdale and from then, events moved quickly with Baxi becoming major shareholders in the Club and pledging their support for the reconstruction of Deepdale.

A SENSE OF CIVIC PRIDE

Ben Casey takes up the story: "The plan now is to progress the development as quickly as possible. We have a full design team, including Preston based Frank Whittle Partnership, working flat out with the target of opening the spectator areas by Christmas 1995."

"Although the programme will be phased, the ultimate objective is a stadium that is a stadium that is a significant and coherent architectural whole. One that will evoke a real sense of civic pride."

"It's style was initially influenced by Italian architect, Vittorio Gregotti, who designed The Luigi Ferraris Stadium at Genoa and The Costieres Stadium at Nimes (coincidentally Preston's twin town in France). Several working drawings later, the new Deepdale has developed a look of it's own."

"The interior design is planned to be uncompromisingly modern and will house facilities such as a health club, leisure centre, indoor cricket and indoor bowls, with a cafe and restaurant overlooking Moor Park."

"The possibility of a National Heritage Football Centre is also being given serious consideration. This could attract thousands of visitors to Preston each year to the 'spiritual home' of the national game."

"It is certainly going to be an interesting year for everyone who follows North End" he concluded.

FOCAL POINT FOR THE COMMUNITY

The new West Stand will have an approximate 7,500 all-seater capacity with a splendid view of the pitch. It will boast several bars and refreshment areas, club shop, administration centre and will also include excellent facilities for disabled and blind supporters.

Restaurant areas used on match days for corporate hospitality will be available for functions during the rest of the week as part of the strategy to make Deepdale a focal point for the people of Preston.

"Our aim is to create a facility which will be used by all sections of the local community, seven days a week" explained Phil Critchley, North End's General Manager, who has overall responsibility for overseeing the West Stand development.

"Together with the provision of excellent facilities for spectators on match-days, we must ensure that we choose the correct mix of leisure facilities to appeal to as wide an audience as possible."

"The challenge is enormous but with the financial support from Baxi, we are confident that we can transform Deepdale into a stadium in which everyone can be proud."

AROUND DIVISION THREE

With Mike Payne

NEWS ON THREE with Mike Payne

So, the busy holiday fixture list is now behind us and each club has had mixed fortunes in our division. As I've said before in this column the tremendous run of Carlisle goes on and on and a wonderful nine points out of nine over the festive period not only made them the first team past 50 points but now puts them a massive eleven points clear at the top of the table. A 1 - 0 win at Gillingham was followed by a brilliant 5 - 1 win at Hartlepool and then the 3 - 0 thrashing of fellow challengers Bury in front of 12,242 which beats North End's record of having the best crowd in the division so far. Certainly the club deserves such support.

Another nine point team over their three games played were Walsall who are maintaining the good form shown in the last couple of months, and I apologise to their top scorer Kylie Lightbourne as I called him Carl in an earlier article. Lightbourne hit three of Walsall's seven goal haul. Two other teams scored nine points, Chesterfield and Mansfield. Chesterfield were the surprise package, although they have now moved into fifth position so they must not be under estimated. Mansfield were the top scorers of the holiday and they also were one of only two clubs to play four games so their record was not 100%. They managed 17 goals including the best score of the season so far in our division, 7 - 1, which shattered poor Hereford's Christmas. At the other extreme Scarborough, Exeter and Rochdale finished pointless from their games , with Rochdale just three short of conceding fifty goals for the season.

Here at Deepdale North End are building a much more solid record and teams will soon start to fear their trips here. Hereford, Barnet, Rochdale and Scarborough all left pointless and if we can just transfer that form to our away games as well then we will take some stopping. In the Scarborough game there was a unique first for Preston when we brought on three substitutes in a league match for the first time.

All results upto and including 2.1.95.

NEWS ON EX NORTH ENDERS:

Alan Kelly featured in an unbelievable ending in Sheffield United's game at Wolves with his side leading 2 - 0 with just a few moments left. United's former Preston keeper gave away a penalty which was converted, and then he watched helplessly as a looping header sailed over him to give Wolves the latest of late equalisers. Gary Brazil scored Fulham's winner at Hartlepool and Don O'Riordan scored an 87th minute goal which helped Torquay pip local rivals Exeter. Mark Leonard and Ronnie Jepson were again amongst the goals and Tony Ellis helped erase the memory of the 7 - 1 thrashing Blackpool had at Birmingham by scoring in the 4 - 0 win against Peterborough. Lea Ashcroft scored another for WBA and Steve Woods was left disappointed after Rangers won 3 - 1 at Fir Park especially as the keeper was credited with an own goal.

HERE TODAY...

COLCHESTER UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB - CLUB HISTORY.

The decision to form a professional football team in Colchester was taken at a crowded public meeting in February 1937. But the story of football in the area goes back to 1837 with the birth of Colchester Town. The old amateur club was the ultimate predecessor of the present day Colchester United.

In fact for a brief period in 1937 both clubs shared the facilities at Layer Road but in December of that year the Town club was wound up with the majority of their amateur players signing for the United and forming the Reserve side playing in the Eastern Counties League. The first team were elected straight into the Southern League.

CUP EXPLOITS.

It was however the F.A.Cup exploits of the 1947/48 season that brought the U's national fame. In that season they became the first non-league club to reach the fifth round. Claiming the scalps of league clubs Wrexham, Huddersfield Town and Bradford en route before losing 5 - 0 to Stanley Matthews Blackpool. So much interest did this cup run under Manager Ted Fenton arouse that during the next five seasons Colchester boasted the biggest supporters' club in the land, reaching a peak of over 15,000 members in 1950.

RECORD SCORE.

The Club was relegated to Division Four in 1960/61 but bounced back in style the following season during which 104 goals were scored (37 of these by Bobby Hunt) a club record which still stands. Another record chalked up that season was the 9 - 1 victory over Bradford City - a record which also stands. However, Benny Fenton, who guided the U's to promotion, left soon after and was replaced by Neil Franklin, a former England centre-half. He could not stop the drop into Division Four in season 1964-65, but yet again we returned to the higher grade the very next year.

CUP GLAMOUR.

In season 1967/68 we again achieved cup glory, when after eliminating local rivals Chelmsford, we paired West Bromwich Albion. A crowd of 16,000 saw a thrilling 1 - 1 draw in which W.B.A. scored with a disputed penalty and in the final minute a Colchester goal was disallowed. West Bromwich won the replay 4 - 0 and, indeed, went on to win the Cup itself.

Neil Franklin was succeeded by Dick Graham at the end of that season and the famous Cup exploits continued. In season 1970/71 we equalled the record by a 4th Division Club by reaching the 6th round of the F.A.Cup; it all began fairly quietly with victories over Ringmer, Barnet, Cambridge and Rochdale, but then we were drawn against Leeds United at Layer Road. Leeds were probably the strongest and most successful side in the country, but this didn't seem to bother "Graham's Grandads" and we took a sensational 3 - 0 lead with two goals from ex Ipswich and England leader Ray Crawford and another from Dave Simmons. Leeds managed to pull two goals back but it was not enough and we had created probably the biggest Cup upset of all time. In front of a 50,000 Everton crowd the U's run came to a 5 - 0 end but the team were given a standing ovation at the end of the game.

THE WATNEY CUP.

The next season began with yet more success, this time in the Watney Cup, a competition for the previous season's leading scorers. Luton were defeated 1 - 0 in the first round and Carlisle 2 - 0 in the semi-final. In an amazing final against West Bromwich Albion at the Hawthorns we gained revenge for our Cup defeat a few years earlier; the score stood 4 - 4 at full time and the match had to be decided on penalties. W.B.A. missed two of their allocated five and with the U's having missed just one, the youngest player on the field, Phil Bloss, slotted home the final shot amid scenes of tremendous excitement, the Watney Cup had been won by Colchester United.

CHANGES.

A very disappointing period followed and Dick Graham departed in the 1972-73 season. Jim Smith joined the club as Player/Manager from Boston United but could not avoid our having to apply for re-election. However, a great transformation took place the next year and, after leading the table for most of the season, we were finally promoted to Division Three. 1974/75 was a moderately successful campaign and we also reached the Quarter-finals of the League Cup, beating Carlisle and Southampton before going down 1 - 2 to Aston Villa at Layer Road. This success, however, led to Jim Smith leaving for Blackburn and he was replaced by Bobby Roberts, who had previously worked as coach.

Yet again we were relegated in 1975-76 but bounced back at the first attempt, although promotion was not assured until the final game of the season. We also had a good Cup run, eventually going out at Derby after drawing with them at Layer Road thanks to a last minute equaliser.

THE EIGHTIES

The 1980's saw a conspicuous lack of success at the club, punctuated by the occasional, but all too brief, excitement.

Relegation to Division Four in 1980/81 was followed by a decade in the basement Division, terminated by demotion to the Vauxhall Conference in 1989-90.

It could have been so different because the Club appeared to be bound for better things in season 1987-88 with Micky Walker (now at Everton) at the helm. Millionaire Chairman, Jonathan Crisp, whose flamboyant and autocratic style ruffled many a feather, dismissed Walker and replaced him with the untried Roger Brown whose managerial term ended after a shattering 8 - 0 defeat at Orient in 1988.

The Club was on a downward spiral and after a brave and successful fight against demotion in 1988/89, which ended with gates over 5,000 and Jock Wallace in charge, season 1989-90 saw the Club disappear through a trapdoor into the Conference.

TWO YEARS IN THE VAUXHALL CONFERENCE.

Against all expectations demotion to the Conference was not the disaster which people had feared.

With Ian Atkins as player-manager season 1990/91 saw the Club narrowly miss promotion, but on the positive side the nucleus of a good side was in place, and gates were up.

Colchester's second year in the Conference was a fairytale of unbroken success. Larger-than-life Roy McDonough had replaced Atkins, and in an unforgettable season the goals flowed, promotion back to the League was assured, and for good measure the F.A. Trophy was won, against Witton Albion in front of over 30,000 at Wembley.

BACK TO THE LEAGUE.

Seasons 1992/93 and 1993/94 saw the Club unable to sustain a convincing push for promotion and, like many before him, McDonough paid the price at the end of last year when he lost his job.

Last season the U's finished in an uncomfortably low position, and, equally worrying, the momentum and support which had been built up during the two Conference seasons, was ebbing away.

The close season saw the appointment of George Burley as Manager, an exciting arrival which could well be the springboard for a bright future.

GOALKEEPERS

JOHN CHEESEWRIGHT - Young keeper who started his career at Tottenham but at the time had the likes of Walker, Thorsvedt and Mimms to contend with. He was released without being offered professional terms and after a spell at Braintree Town in the Beazer Homes League, he now has a second chance to make a big name for himself.

CARL EMBERSON - A goalkeeper with considerable potential who was purchased from Millwall in July 1994, having previously been on loan at Layer Road during the season 1992-93. Unable to break-through at the New Den, Carl's first aim is to play regular League football.

DEFENDERS

TONY ENGLISH - Club Captain and former England Youth International who is now in his testimonial season with the Club. A reliable defender or midfielder who has seen many changes during his ten years at Layer Road. Prefers to play centre-half but versatile enough to adapt to other positions.

SIMON BETTS - Young north easterner full-back who developed through the Ipswich Town Youth Team and Reserves but was released without making the first team. Trial spells at three clubs followed before Colchester snapped him up and he found himself straight in the first team.

PETER CRAWLEY - Gentle giant who played some of the best football of his career last year, and was duly rewarded when the end of season awards were made. His travels have taken him from Wimbledon (whom he joined on the same day as one Vincent Jones), to six other clubs including Bristol Rovers, Southend and Fulham. Now well settled at Layer Road after having signed a two year contract during the close season.

TIM ALLPRESS - Signed from Luton Town where he spent several seasons on the verge of the first team, for whom he made a number of memorable appearances. A centre-half who, having established himself, will be looking to build on his reputation this year.

ANDY PARTNER - Central defender in his second year as a professional and desperate to break into the first team planning. Strong and commanding no-nonsense player whose father was at the Club twenty-five years ago.

DANNY ROBERTS - Hard-working right-sided flank player who was rewarded with a professional contract at the end of last year. His tremendous energy and pace mean that he will be one to watch for the future.

GUS CAESAR - A very familiar name in football circles. Gus started his career in the marble halls of Highbury and at one time looked set for a long career at the very top level. Things have not worked quite as planned and Gus arrived at Layer Road in the summer after spells at Brighton and Cambridge and two years in Scotland where his talents did not escape the attention of George Burley. In recent years Colchester have lacked pace in defence, and it is hoped that Gus will provide this missing ingredient.

MIDFIELD

TONY DENNIS - Born in Elton, his first professional club was Plymouth Argyle. After several seasons in non-league circles, Cambridge United paid a five figure fee to Slough in order to resurrect his league career. He spent last season at Chesterfield and his travels have now taken him to Layer Road where his competitiveness and desire for the game could make him a real favourite.

MARK KINSELLA - 21 year old from Dublin who joined the U's from the famous Home Farm club. Under 21 international who is widely expected to make a big name for himself with his beloved Eire. Played as a sweeper for much of last season. He is current Player of the Year

STEVE WHITTON - His illustrious top-level career has seen him serve Coventry, Birmingham, Sheffield Wednesday, West Ham and Ipswich with great distinction. Has a lot of football left in him and from this season will also be coaching. Right sided player, equally at home in midfield or up front.

TONY COOK - 17 year old YT lad for whom there are high hopes that he can blossom into a real find. Left QPR with the words "hope you don't come back and haunt me" ringing in his ears, he is setting about doing just that, with a number of first team games already under his belt.

STEVE BALL - Tasted success early in his career as a member of Arsenal's F.A.Youth Cup winning side. His early promise was not fulfilled and he is now back with his home town team after two years at Norwich City, and trials at Ipswich Town and Cambridge United. Slick passer who should always score his quota of goals.

FORWARDS

STEVE BROWN - 20 year old who arrived with a bang from Scunthorpe last season - a spell when everything he hit went into the net was followed by a time when the goals dried up. Has time on his side and could make a big name for himself.

CHRIS FRY - Joined the Club from Hereford United last season and showed great character in establishing himself after a difficult first few months. Skillful and dangerous crosser of the ball, he is always likely to create more goals than he scores.

PAUL ABRAHAMS - Young striker who made a great impact in season 1992/93, only to miss nearly all of last season through injury. A player with quick reactions and a predatory goalscoring instinct which often finds him in the right place at the right time. Colchester have already rejected one sizeable offer for his services.

JUSTIN BOOTY - Has scored goals at every level and now, having a year's contract, he faces his biggest test of making an impression in Division Three. His strength and eye for a goal make him an interesting prospect.

Do you have a nickname at the club?
Kevin Magee calls me "The Assassin".

You have quite a few qualifications don't you? I've got 9 O-Levels and 2 A-levels. I used to work as a Computer Systems Analyst for a big American company.

How did Peterborough spot you and how did study fit in when you were there?
I signed for Peterborough as a schoolboy. I was going to go to Cambridge at first, but I didn't really want to leave home. When I started at Peterborough as an apprentice, I went to college on a day release basis and that was how I did my A-Levels.

What do you plan to do when you finish playing? I'd like to have my own men's clothes shop or some sort of business. It's something I've given a bit of thought to.

How did you enjoy your time at Colchester and what memories do you have from Layer Road? I had 2 years at Colchester and I enjoyed it very much. I made many friends down there and still keep in touch with some. One of the funniest memories I have from Colchester is when I played for them against Crewe Alexandra. It was pouring with rain and I did a sliding tackle in the mud, but I couldn't stop and I flew off the pitch and crashed into a young lad selling sweets. He got caked in mud and I was covered in crisps and polo's. All the crowd were cheering ,but I think he saw the funny side of it!

Have you any bad habits or vices you'd like to confess?
I always let the washing up pile up - I tend to do it about once a week!

Who is your regular room-mate and what annoying habits does he have?
Ian Bryson. He never ever sleeps. He's up and raring to go at eight in the morning. I think it's probably a routine he gets into during the week, with his kids going to school and so on. He's usually read both newspapers before I've even thought about getting up!

Ian Bryson says you talk all night on away trips - is that true?
No, I always sleep, so I don't know how he can say that. I spend a lot of time reading my Scottish phrase book when I room with him.

What has been the highlight of your career so far?
You'd have to go some way to beat the Torquay game in last seasons Play Offs. The atmosphere was absolutely unbelievable.

And the most depressing moment?
10 days later, when I was dropped for the Wembley game.

What exactly happened there?
I was standing on Wembley pitch at 2 o'clock when I was told I wasn't playing. Words can't describe how I felt then and wouldn't wish that on anybody.
Talk me through your memorable goal against Torquay in the Play Offs last season. I can remember thinking that we needed another goal to take the game into extra time. We got a corner and as the ball came over, I got above two defenders to head the ball and luckily it flew into the net. I was absolutely stunned straight after that, I couldn't believe I'd scored. I don't think I'd get as big a buzz if I won the National Lottery!

Do you have any pre-match superstitions?
I always put my shirt on in the tunnel, just before I get onto the pitch. It's something I don't even think about, it's second nature.

You seem to be very much a fans player at Deepdale. Has this always been the case at each club you've been at?
The fans at this club are magnificent and certainly the best bunch I've played in front of. I've always got on well with fans at other clubs I've played for, but these people are phenomenal.

What exactly is it that gives you such a rapport with the fans in your opinion?
I think it's just that they can see me giving everything and because I like to have a laugh and a joke with them.

How would you like the fans to remember you at the end of your Deepdale career?
As somebody who never gave less than 100%

How much different is your defensive role under Gary Peters than it was previously?
You have to think more, now that we are encouraged to pass the ball. Previously, it was a case of playing the ball into certain areas, but now, once we've won the ball, we need to look at the options around us.

What do you do to wind down after training?
I enjoy playing golf and snooker. I'm taking snooker lessons from Kevin Magee now, he beats everybody.

Which school are you involved with on the "Adopt a Player" scheme and what kind of activities do you do there?
I am involved with Lostock Hall High School. I go there once a week or a fortnight and give out tickets, sign autographs and so on. Hopefully the new year will see me take some cooking sessions and question/answer sessions there.

You seem quite a colourful character. How do you contribute to dressing room atmosphere?
Compared to some of the lads here, I'm actually fairly quiet. We all get on really well, everybody gives stick and everybody takes some, especially about clothes!

Which North End player would you least like to be stuck in a lift with and why?
I can think of a reason for just about everybody but I'll say Ian Bryson because he's such a moaner!

Who is the most difficult opponent you have faced?
When I was at Huddersfield Town, I played against Arsenal in the Coca-Cola Cup and I thought Ian Wright was brilliant. His pace and all round ability were frightening. Needless to say, he scored a hat-trick!

What has been your most embarrassing moment on the pitch?
When I was at Scunthorpe, I headed the ball out for a corner, carried on running, collided with the metal post and knocked myself out! I've put through my own goal a few times too, but I suppose most defenders to do that in their time.

What do you consider to be your main strengths within the game?
My heading and tackling and generally the physical side of the game.

What aspects would you most like to improve upon?
My positional sense.

Are there any people still at Colchester who were there with you?
Tony English and Mark Kinsella are still there and I always speak to them when we play Colchester. I go back to Colchester once or twice a year to visit people and I always seem to bump into Mark then.

Finally Stuart, is there anything you'd like to say to the fans?
As one boxer says "You're simply the best."

FROM THE RULEBOOK

By arrangement with the Football Association, a series of articles has been produced which it is believed will make a suitable inclusion in Preston's match day programme. It is hoped these will be of assistance to spectators in their better understanding of certain aspects of the laws of the game.

Tackling - fair and foul

The British style of hard, fair, competitive tackling is something expected and enjoyed in our matches. It was, therefore, with some concern that we read of statements made by some leading international figures, prior to the World Cup final games, that any tackles (or, worse still, any attempt tackles) made from behind an opponent, would in future result in not only a direct free-kick, but also a dismissal from the field. Visions of red cards for previously accepted fair tackles caused consternation in many National Associations.

Fortunately, the early statements had been either rash or exaggerated and the mandatory instructions given to referees (and announced to team managers before a ball had been kicked) proved to be less draconian and were acknowledged by most in football to be, indeed, constructive and welcome.

Violent unfair tackles from behind (or, indeed, from any direction) have prematurely ended the careers of a number of top players and those savage attacks aimed at the achilles region, with little or no real attempt made to play the ball, do, of course, require the ultimate immediate sanction of the red card. Fair play must continue to be encouraged and foul, violent play which can so easily shatter the life of a professional player, must be eradicated!

The strong action urged (now required) by FIFA is welcomed for the protection and welfare of players under threat of unfair violent tackles and serves, hopefully to be a firm and effective deterrent to this type of excessive foul play, so that few red cards, in practice, be displayed. Early season signs, however, are that a few players have still put at risk the safety of fellow professionals by challenging in a violent unacceptable manner and red cards have been produced. The sooner individuals acknowledge the dangerous nature of these foul tackles, the sooner the red card can be relegated to in-pocket status and remain there, as planned, merely as a strong deterrent to those thinking about such transgressions.

But, back to fair competitive tackles and the sliding tackle in particular. Here, there is less difficulty, provided players slide in with one or both legs and make direct contact with the ball.

Occasionally, if the challenge is deemed to be over-vigorous and seen to be dangerous by the referee, an indirect free-kick (only) is awarded. However, essentially, the fair, lateral, sliding tackle is quite permissible and remains part of the skillful defenders repertoire.

Law XII has always required referees to estimate a players true intention in making any tackle; not an easy task by any means. To help in adjusting on sliding tackles, made from the side of an opponent, the new mandatory instructions given to referees by FIFA, guide that if a player making a tackle trips an opponent, instead of making first contact with the ball, the referee must award a direct free-kick (for intentional tripping) and caution the tackler (yellow card) for Ungentlemanly Conduct. At first glance, a caution (yellow card) may appear harsh in these circumstances, but FIFA's view is that the tackler knows the risk involved (ball or man) and if he makes direct contact with the man this is clearly unfair, against the spirit of the game and the concept of Fair Play and hence, must be punished appropriately as Ungentlemanly Conduct.

The new instructions have caused some defenders to have to re-think their tackling strategy but, again, the early season signs are that the game has benefited from players being better protected and able to display their skills in both dribbling and being able to dwell constructively on the ball. Also, of course, we still have our hard, fair, competitive tackles as part of the British game!

NORTH END ON TOUR

For North End's second game of the USA/Canada tour played in May/June 1929 four changes were made from the team that drew the opening game 1-1 against Hakoah, three of the changes being on the forward line.

North End's opponents for the second game were the New York Giants of the Eastern Soccor League. Due to a dramatic cloudburst over New York earlier in the day the game was limited to 35 minutes each way. The field of play was unplayable for a while and the kick off was delayed for over an hour.

The water drenched pitch was so bad in parts that the touchlines had to be brought in by ten yards.

The Giants kicked off but it was the visitors from England that won the games first corner after nine minutes. The trainer was called upon soon after when Jock Brown, the Giants goalkeeper got mud in his eyes when diving bravely in the swamp-like goalmouth. The first half ended goalless as both teams struggled to put two passes together.

North End were first to show after the interval and put the Giants under pressure but with 17 minutes of the second half played the New Yorkers at last scored when Davie Brown landed a low shot just inside of the left upright. With this set-back Preston then upped the pace and after a series of near misses they drew level just six minutes after conceding the goal.

The equaliser came about when a well-placed cross by George Harrison went to George Bargh, who jumped well and headed the ball past Brown for the equalising goal.

The rains started again and play became very difficult. With time running out Bargh had a snap shot at the Giants goal but the ball hit the post and instead of glancing into the net it came out and the danger passed.

The game ended up as another 1-1 draw in front of around 3,000 soggy spectators.

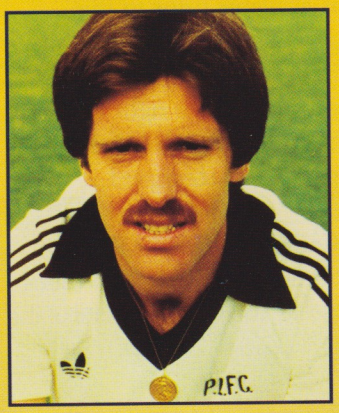
Steve cowell writes.....

Danny Cameron

Dundee-born Danny was a tenacious impish-like full-back who played here at Deepdale from 1976-1981. He carried on the clubs Scottish connection of having on the books at least one full-back from North of the Border.
Since while Cunningham in the 1950's there has been George Ross. Jimmy Smith, John Donnelly, Bert Patrick and Jim McNab. Even today we have Raymond Sharp.
Danny Cameron was a promising schoolboy footballer who once featured in the Scottish Schoolboys International squad in 1968/69. During his final year at school a number of clubs sought Danny's signature but after having trials at Arsenal and Leeds United he decided to join Sheffield Wednesday as an apprentice professional. After serving his apprenticeship he signed as a full professional, his manager being Derek Dooley, who the older North End fans will know broke his leg at Deepdale and later had to have it amputated.
During Danny's second season at Hillsborough the Sheffield side struggled and Danny was loaned out to this evenings opponents, Colchester

United, for whom he played five games. Colchester fancied signing Danny but apparently were unable to afford the required fee to make it a permanent transfer. Back at Hillsborough Danny suffered a bad knee ligament injury which put him out of action for three months, but then found it difficult to regain his place when fit again and requested a transfer.
North End's Chief Scout, Jimmie Scott, stepped in and Danny was snapped up on a 'free' by the late Harry Catterick, then PNE's manager, on 13th April 1976. Danny's first team debut was as substitute in the final game of that season, away at Hereford, coming on for Jimmy Brown who happened to be an old school pal of Danny's.



Danny Cameron
In typical pre-season pose

In Danny's first full season at Preston his appearances were limited due to the fact that John McMahon and Gary Williams were the men in possession of the full-backs shirts, but when Williams was transferred to Brighton Danny slotted into the full-back berth, usually partnering McMahon. With Mick Baxter at centre-half and the deadly duo of Elwiss and Bruce up front North End looked as if they could gain promotion that season (1977/78), and so it proved as we finished 3rd behind Wrexham and Cambridge United, under Nobby Stiles' management.
Danny who was a fast, aggressive defender had another three seasons with PNE but when Preston were relegated at the end of the 1980/81 season Danny was one of those who had to make way for new faces - thats football. So when his hometown club, Dundee, came in it was not too difficult for Danny to decide what his next move should be.

Football wins the Pools every Saturday

Every time you enter Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters Pools or Littlewoods Spot the Ball you are helping the game at all levels. The Football Trust administers funds from the Pools, helping clubs to improve safety and comfort.

The Trust receives some £37 million every year, all of it coming directly or indirectly from Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters Pools and Littlewoods Spot the Ball.

Football also receives £8 million a year for the use of fixtures on coupons and Littlewoods, the game's biggest benefactor, is the first sponsor of the FA Cup.

Up and down the country, clubs are building new grounds, stands, seating and roofing. All depend on the support of the Football Trust and on the success of the football pools.

PAPER TALK

by Brian Ellis
Sports Editor
The Lancashire Evening

When Scarborough visited Deepdale 10 days ago they hardly wore the mantle of a club doomed to Conference football next season.

On the pitch they looked every inch a side propping up the entire Football League - but off it they could still laugh and joke as if they hadn't a care in the world.

And no wonder! Thanks to some splendid rule book cooking, they aren't likely to drop out even if they finish 30 points adrift.

At the moment Macclesfield are looking champions elect of the "Fifth Division." But incredibly Sammy McIlroy's side are blocked from going up should they win the title by a mile and a half.

And, for the second season running, when you look at football's much-vaunted pyramid system, there's no point at the top.

I won't say I shed any tears for Kidderminster last year, but that had nothing to do with the merits or otherwise of their case for League status. I had painful memories of my last visit there...having to sit squashed up on a hard wooden bench 24 hours after a vasectomy! Being refused entry to the programme game served them right for not providing cushions.

But Macclesfield seem to have a stronger case, not least because of the comfort of the press box at Moss Rose on the nether portions of its infirm visitors.

After all the ground actually staged League football for two seasons not long ago - as temporary home for Chester City - and is said to be better now than it was then.

I suppose Kidderminster could argue a similar case, having mounted two 7,000 sell-out FA Cup ties at their Aggborough Stadium against North End and West Ham and coped admirably with both.

But rules is rules, say the League, and things like that don't count. The real bugbear though appears to be the deadline for bringing a Conference stadium up to League standard. Clubs have until December 31 to get the work done and dusted, even though the season doesn't start until August - and you could probably build a new Legoland stadium in that time.

Kidderminster fell foul of that one by not having replaced their main stand by the end of 1993. We went in late January and it was still packed to the rafters despite the condemned notice.

Macclesfield missed the deadlines too because their renovation work won't be done until the summer. It will be ready for the start of next term, but that didn't seem to impress the judges.

But why the New Year's Eve deadlines, for heaven's sake? Why SEVEN months before the League programme kicks off? Rules, as they keep on parroting, is rules.

In a desperate bid to get round that one McIlroy's directors announced they would be happy to ground share with Chester again, this time at The Deva Stadium (available in kit form), until their improvements were ready.

Actually they didn't even believe they would need to, but it was just a safety net in case the work wasn't completed in time for the big kick-off.

Once again the League said a resounding "No". But why not, argued Macclesfield. The Deva is a League ground. Sorry, said the League, but it's not in your own conurbation.

But Moss Rose wasn't in Chester's and they were allowed to play there. Sorry pal, it's the rules - and anyway, we've tinkered about with them a few times since then.

But Bristol Rovers play in Bath. Ah, that was agreed before the rules changed as well.

And what about allowing Northampton - the club which escaped the drop because of Kidderminster's failure to get in - to kick off the season in their old tumbledown stadium for months until the new Sixfields place was ready? Surely that's a set and a half of double standards when their rightful replacements in the League were being excluded even though they possessed a better ground. Errrr, well, errrr, it's the rules!

It is also, in my maybe jaundiced view, a clear case of the Football League continually moving the goalposts to make sure they don't let one in -or perhaps more importantly, have to throw a member club out.

IN RESERVE

BURNLEY FIXTURE POSTPONED

On Wednesday, 21st December, the away Reserve fixture at Turf Moor against Burnley was postponed due to a frozen pitch, we were rather surprised because there had only been one night of frost. Steve Carroll and myself arrived at the ground only to be disappointed as the North End team had already been and returned home, the match being called off at 6.20pm. We were robbed of the chance of seeing Graham Lancashire in action. One Burnley fan quipped "I do not know what Burnley are playing at selling Lancashire he is as good as anything we have here."
So we move into the New Year in 13th place in the table a position we need to improve on although we have played more games away than Deepdale. Best of luck to the lads for the rest of the season.

On Tuesday, 3rd January, the home reserve fixture with Bradford City was postponed again due to a frozen pitch.
No new date as yet has been arranged for both reserve games Burnley (A) and Bradford City.

Please Note the home reserve fixture versus Blackpool due to be played on Monday 23rd January, has now been rearranged for the evening of Wednesday, 22nd February 1995.

TABLE AS AT 25th DECEMBER 1994

PNE YOUTH

by John Draper

Sat 17th December 1994
PNE 'B' 1
Blackburn.R. 'B' 1

I was very surprised this game went ahead, the pitch at Warton seemed to be in a worse condition than the previous Saturdays postponed game v Carlisle 'A' (10/12/94). Anyway the game went ahead on time. An industrious North End battling against a strong wind blowing from the Fylde Coast, were doing all the attacking but were just not able to turn pressure into goals. Colin Potts grafting away did not get the support he deserved - perhaps this failing caused the sending off of North Ends Simon Stewart (32nd min). In frustration he used foul language towards one of his own players. It was a surprise to everybody that he got his marching orders -a warning and a yellow card would have been sufficient. The referee had to accept the wrath of the small crowd up to and at half time.

The referee not being very popular caused the biggest laugh of the game (52nd min) when he had to be replaced by the senior linesman when he inadvertently 'collided' or as some spectators said 'tackled' a Blackburn player. With the wind now getting stronger and colder by the minute, we needed a goal to cheer us up - but I am afraid when the goal came it was in the wrong net - a long punted ball down the middle split the North End defence allowing Rovers No9 to score easily (65th min). It did not take the battling 10 North End lads much time to equalise - 4 mins in fact North End gained a corner - the ball was headed on by John Calligan to the skilfull Colin Potts on the left side of the goal area. He did a "Tom Finney' feint sending two Rovers players the wrong way, then turning them again before flighting the ball into the net beyond a bemused goalkeeper - that was a special goal! which had me and a few more jumping with delight. It did not seem as cold now!! The game ended equal at 1-1 a good result for North End considering they had played with 10 men for nearly two thirds of the game.

North End Team = Vaughan: Stewart, Taylor, McKenna, Cocoran, McMenemy, Atkinson, Borwick, Calligan, Potts, Kilbane.
Unused subs = Lawler and McCrone.

Apology

In the Rochdale programme remarks were made to the state of Warton's Football Pitch which the clubs youth team use. Preston North End Football Club would like to express our sincere gratitude to B.A.E. Warton for their assistance in allowing the club to use their facilities and no criticism was intended.

FANSCENE

PRESTON NEOSC

Preston North End Official Supporters Club

Lets start by wishing all the fans, players, Manager and staff of Preston North End a very happy and prosperous New Year. (Especially in the goal department!).

For those of you who didn't manage the trek down to Torquay, the "New Look" North End team acquitted themselves admirably and on the day at least deserved a draw. Unfortunately, with past defeats obviously still prominent in their memory Torquay just seemed to have the will to put one over on us slightly more than we had the will to win. However, North End battled well and only the post deprived Atkinson of a goal and a reflex save from Torquay keeper denied Cartwright the equaliser.

Player of the Year

As we are now half way through the season I hope that you are all taking note of our players performances as April will soon be here and April equates to "Player of the Year". After canvasing many of our supporters there does not seem to be a definite front runner at the moment. (Players take note - there is still time to make your mark!). However, some would say that the choice of our leading scorer over Gareth Ainsworth last season was some what of a surprise.

Gavin Nebbeling

Gavin Nebbling

It was with much sadness that we learnt of the departure of Gavin Nebbling from P.N.E. I always found Gavin to be the perfect gentleman - he always made a point of stopping and speaking to you, no matter how busy he seemed to be. I know that he will be missed by fans and player alike. I take this opportunity on behalf of all North End supporters of wishing Gavin every success in the future and I am sure that, as he will already be aware, that there will always be a warm welcome for him anytime he manages to catch up with us in the future.

Supporters Football

If there is anyone out there who is interested in joining our Supporters Club Football Team then please call in and see us at the Portakabin. We train on a Sunday afternoon at West Cliff and are looking forward to two forthcoming tournaments at Charlton and Tranmere.

Away Travel to Wigan

For those of you who booked to travel to Wigan with us on December 28th please note that your tickets are still valid for the re-arranged fixture on January 24th. The coach leaves Leyland at 5.30pm and Preston at 6.00pm making stops at Lostock Hall, the bus station and outside Legends on Deepdale Road

As always, if you wish to travel with us to Carlisle, Wigan or Exeter then you can book by calling into the Portakabin on Lowthorpe Road or by contacting Fishwicks, Guild Hall Travel or by telephoning 01772 682327.

Baxi on the Ball.

Shown here is our centre forward, the incredibly popular Baxi Bermuda RG.

The rest of the squad includes a wide range of gas firefronts, wall heaters and boilers, which perform to the same exacting standards of premium quality and High performance.

Phone Baxi on 01772 695555, maybe you'll become a supporter.
